I, Anne Parker, formerly the wife of John Parker late of Falmouth deceased, now an Inhabitant of Westbrook (formerly Falmouth) in the county of Cumberland and State of Maine aged 87 years, do upon oath declare, in order to obtain the benefit of a resolve of the Legislature of Maine, passed on the 17th of March 1835, entitled a "Resolve in favour of certain officers and soldiers of the Revolutionary War, and the Widows of the deceased officers and soldiers," that I am the Widow of John Parker late of Falmouth (now Westbrook) in the county of Cumberland and State of Maine, who died at Falmouth (now Westbrook) in the County of Cumberland and State of Maine about the year 1780. —

That I have reason to believe that my said husband did enlist in the Revolutionary army of Massachusetts line in the year 1777 as a private in the company commanded by Captⁿ John Hillin in Col Francis regiment for the term of three years and that he performed his full term of service aforesaid and was regularly discharged in the year 1780 — after his discharge I lived with my said late husband in the town of Falmouth (now Westbrook) now in the State of Maine until his decease, having been married to him I think in Jan'y. 1777. —

I do further on oath declare that I have good reason to believe I do believe, that my said late husband John Parker was at the time of his enlistment, an inhabitant of Falmouth (now Westbrook) now in the state of Maine & that I
